Replacement Behavior

Problem Behavior

Parent tells child s/he can’t have sugary cereal

Child tantrums in the store

Parent says “Thank you!”
[Child does not get sugary cereal]

Setting Events

Shopping at supermarket

Triggering Antecedents

Maintaining Consequences

Ideal Behavior

Child accepts “No” and remains calm

Child gets sugary cereal

Acceptable Consequences

Child gets choice of cereal
[within set limits]

COMPETING PATHWAYS
(Adapted from Horner, 2003)